Stikeman Elliott LLP congratulates senior partner and leader of the firm's Technology and Outsourcing Practice, Alison Youngman, for being named one of the YWCA's "Women of Distinction" in the Corporate Leadership Category.

The Award, announced last night, recognizes Alison's work with the American Bar Association, the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation, the global Leadership Board of the International Women's Forum and her many contributions to the development of the next generation of women leaders in Canada and the U.S.

Alison has truly made a difference in the community and at Stikeman Elliott LLP, and we are very proud that she has received this honour.
