

THE POWER OF BEING a GIRL CONFERENCE

Wednesday, October 19th, 9:30am to 11:30am
STC Coliseum Cinemas (300 Borough Drive)
Doors open at 9am

YWCA Girls' Council presents a free event for girls 12 to 14 years of age.

This event explores girls' potential as leaders. Maximum 40 seats per school (includes teachers). This is an opportunity to motivate and empower girls by introducing them to women who are leaders at school, in their community, in business and in government. Presentation focus will include girls' leadership, health and making it in the business world as a young woman. Speakers will also examine personal relationships, the particular challenges/obstacles girls face, setting personal goals, and staying motivated.

Guest speakers:

- Munira Abukar, Board Member, Toronto Community Housing Corporation
- Dr. Marjorie Dixon, Reproductive Endocrinology and Fertility Specialist
- Adiba Hasnat, YWCA Girls' Council
- Jennifer Ger and Suzie Chemel, Founders of Foxy Originals Jewelry
- Xania Khan, Editor and Brand Director, Vervegirl
- Kristyn Wong-Tam, City Councillor Rosedale Centre, Ward 27
