YWCA Toronto announces 2010 Women of Distinction

Today YWCA Toronto announces the 2010 recipients of the prestigious Women of Distinction Awards. The awards recognize the contributions of women who have improved the lives of girls and women in Toronto.

The 2010 recipients are:

Rona Abramovitch, Education

Opening doors with education

Jane Allen, Corporate Leadership

Generating leadership opportunities for women

Helen Burstyn, Community Leadership

Giving women a seat at the table

Mary Anne Chambers, Community Service

Building community, creating brighter futures

Sister June Dwyer, Health and Healing

Nursing hope, healing families

Claudine Labelle, Young Woman of Distinction

An athletic spirit, a fit leader

Noella Milne, Mentorship

Elevating women in every domain

Deborah Sinclair, Social Justice

A pioneer in the movement to end violence against women

The awards will be presented during the 30th YWCA Women of Distinction Awards dinner, presented by Sun Life Financial, on Wednesday, May 12 at 6:30 p.m. at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre. This year celebrates 30 years of inspiration. Tables and tickets to attend the awards are available for purchase.

The award recipients are available for interviews in the period preceding the awards.
