Looking to build your leadership skills and increase your confidence?

Delivered by YWCA Toronto's Skills Development Centre, these sessions will allow you to learn valuable facilitation skills which contributes to improving leadership capacities within a team setting or workplace.

Enhance your professional development and join us for this two-part series which includes the following:

- Gain an understanding of the fundamentals of facilitation.
- Explore your strengths for further skill development.
- Build your confidence as a facilitator.

 Participants will require access to a computer with camera and internet connection*

 Must attend both days of training to obtain certificate of participation.*
