With increased technology and the use of social media, job scammers can find ways to attract your attention and obtain your personal information. In your job search efforts, you may encounter job postings that seem credible but are in fact a job scam. Attend this two-part session to learn how to be safe during your job search, identify red flags and gain practical experience.

You will learn:

- To identify possible and most common job scams
- The consequences of getting scammed
- How to avoid and protect yourself from job scams
